

The Widow and the Judge

Sometimes, we ask God for something we need and forget to mention it again. Maybe when we ask for it, we want God to grant our wish right away!

Jesus once told a story of a poor widow who was cheated by a rich man. She went to a judge every day to complain about the rich man. "Help me. The rich man has cheated me," she would cry out, but the busy judge would not listen to her.

One day, the judge thought to himself: 'If I don't listen to her, she will keep coming and crying.'

After telling the story, Jesus said if the busy judge could have pity on the poor widow, so also will God, who is so good, have pity on us and help us in all our needs. God is full of love and cares for us always. He will hear our prayers and send help at the right time.

We often see people suffering or in trouble and can help them by praying to God to end their troubles. We must ask and pray not once or twice, but every day, so that God may help us and those who suffer.

Quote – Deep down in every human heart there is knowledge of God. And deep down in every human heart is the desire to communicate with Him. - Saint Teresa of Calcutta

Books – Contemplative Prayer by Thomas Merton

Jesus says we should always pray and not give up. God loves us and wants what is best for us, and He will answer "YES" if He thinks what we asked for is good for us.

Now, will God not judge in favor of his own people who cry to him day and night for help? Will he be slow to help them?

Luke 18:7

Dear Father, teach us to pray. If we desire good things, remind us that we need to pray and pray again. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

You pray every day, right? Yes, that is something you should continue for your entire life. When you pray, remember your family, friends, neighbours and leaders, and the sick and the destitute.

You may be familiar with games like this where you go around in circles. Here you can see your friends playing but where are you? God wants you to be with your friends. Draw yourself inside the frame of the blank picture and see if you are happy?

God Made you.

God Loves You

God wants you to be happy

God made everyone

God loves everyone

God wants everyone to be happy
