

A LONELY WOMAN GETS LIVING WATER!

One hot day, a sad and lonely Samaritan woman went to a well to fill water. She was sad because she was living in a sinful way and she had no real friends.

She saw a man sitting near the well. He asked her for water to drink. The woman was shocked. "How is it that you, a Jew, ask me a Samaritan woman for water?" she asked.

The man answered, "If you knew who I was, and the gift that God wants to give you, you would ask me for water and I would give you LIVING WATER!" Then he told her more about the living water: It would become a fountain inside her and lead her to heaven.

The woman got quite excited to hear about this magical water. "Please give me this water, Sir!" she cried out. At that moment she felt God's love enter her like a river of love. She felt her sins being washed away and slowly peace and happiness filling her heart.

"God loves me! He has forgiven me!" Off she ran, to tell everyone about the wonderful man who gave her living water.
