

THE FIRST PASSOVER

The _____ were being treated very cruelly in Egypt. They were being used as _____ by the Egyptians. They prayed to God to _____ them.

God called _____ and sent him to _____, the king of Egypt, to say to him, "God says, set my people _____!" But Pharaoh refused.

God sent nine _____ to Egypt, but still Pharaoh wouldn't listen. At last God told Moses that the angel of _____ was going to kill all the _____ - _____ in Egypt.

The Israelites (and any others who joined them) would be saved if they followed God's instructions: Each family had to take a _____, kill it, and put some of its _____ on the doorposts and lintel of the house. Then they had to _____ and eat the lamb with unleavened _____. The Israelites did all that God had told them.

That night all the first-born in Egypt died, but the angel of death _____ the houses where the blood was smeared. At last Pharaoh let the Israelites go free!

THE FIRST EUCHARIST

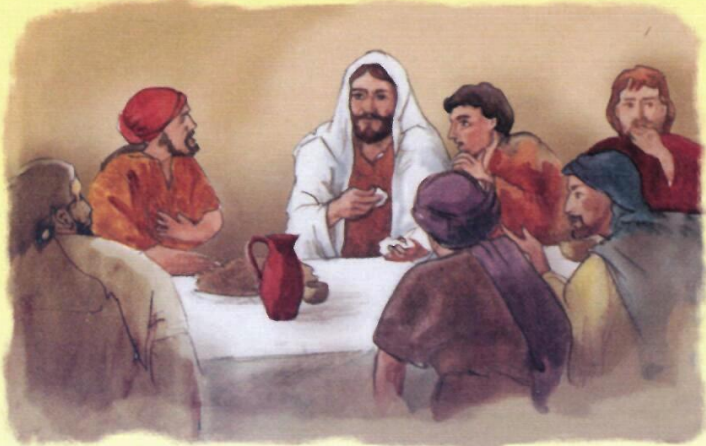

Hundreds of years later, on the Passover feast, Jesus had a very special meal with his disciples. He knew that he would soon give up his life for them, and for all who were going to die because of sin.

After giving thanks to God he gave them bread and wine and said,

"Take this all of you and eat it, for this is my body, which will be given up for you..."

"Drink of it, for this is my blood, which will be poured out for you."

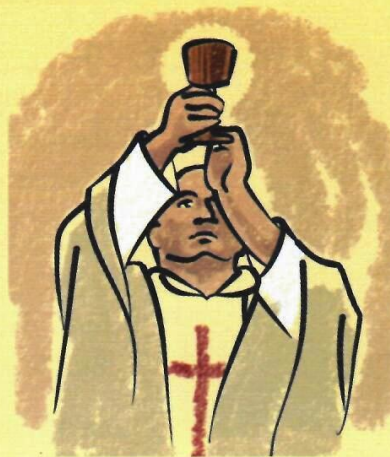

Then he said, "Do this in memory of me!"
