

Abraham welcomed the three men as if he was welcoming God himself. The visitors were really angels. They promised that Sarah would have a baby boy in one year's time... and it really happened! They called their baby Isaac.

Tell the story of Abraham to your family. Invite someone over for a meal: a priest, sister, missionary or poor person.

Like Abraham, we must welcome people to our homes as if we are welcoming God.

Jesus said to his followers:

'WHOEVER WELCOMES YOU, WELCOMES ME!'

He also said,

"IF A PERSON GIVES EVEN A CUP OF COLD WATER TO SOMEONE FOR MY SAKE, THAT PERSON WILL GET A REWARD."
