

Jacob had twelve sons. Joseph was the second-last son. His father gave him a special coat of many colours. His brothers were jealous of him.

Joseph had two dreams. He dreamed that his brothers' sheaves bowed down to his sheaf. Then he dreamed that the sun, moon and eleven stars bowed down to him. These dreams showed Joseph what God was going to do when he grew up.

God has a good plan for each of us. We must trust him and try to do what he wants.

The Holy Spirit told Simeon what baby Jesus would do when he grew up.

This child is the one who will save the whole world. He will be a light to show the way to every one!

Learn this prayer. Find out from which psalm it is taken. Write the number of the psalm.

O Lord, you could see me as I was being made. Even before I was born, you wrote down in your book all that would happen to me. PSALM: _____