

The Israelites quarreled with Moses because there was no water.

They forgot all that God had done for them.

Moses prayed and God told him what to do.

Moses called all the people to the rock at Horeb and struck it with his stick.

Water gushed out from the rock.

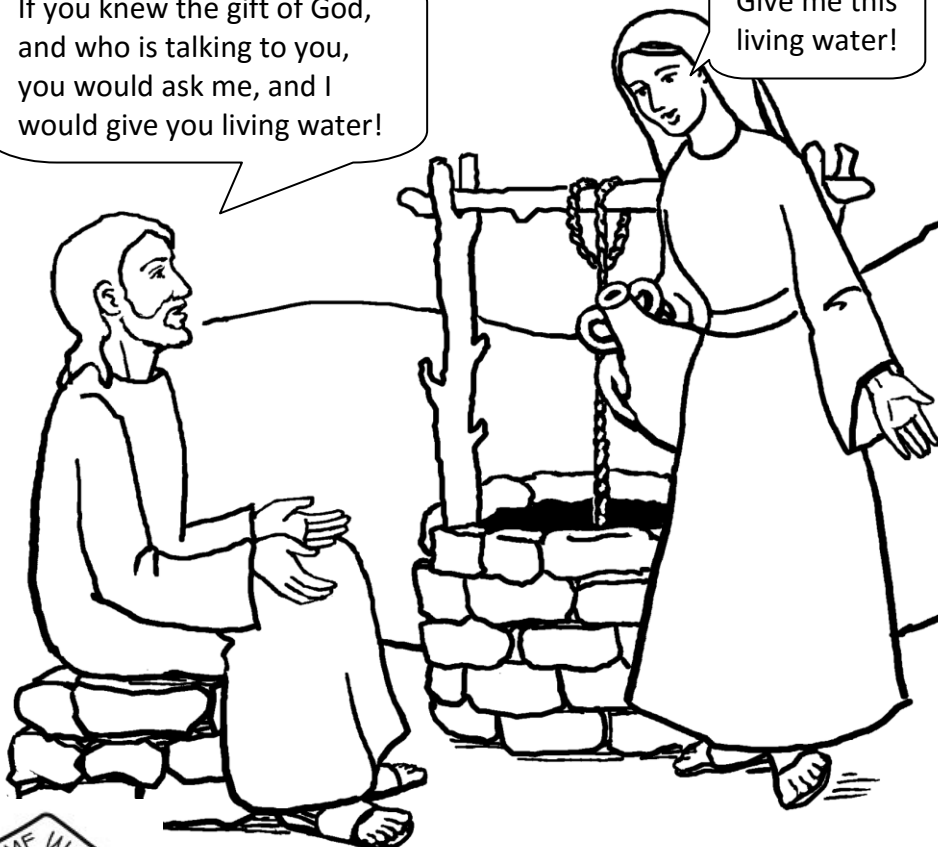

The people were very happy, but Moses knew that God was not happy with them.

He called that place Meribah, which means _____.

If you knew the gift of God, and who is talking to you, you would ask me, and I would give you living water!

Give me this living water!

Jesus met a Samaritan woman near a well. First he asked her for water. Then he offered her living water.

After she received the living water, the woman became happy. She ran and told everyone in her town about Jesus. They all came to meet him and believed in him.
